ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE'S RULING
NOTIFYING PARTIES OF THE TIME IN WHICH TO RESPOND TO THE MODIFICATION OF THE SERVICING ORDER

In Decision (D.) 02-09-053, the Commission ordered Pacific Gas and Electric Company (PG&E), San Diego Gas & Electric Company (SDG&E), and Southern California Edison Company (SCE), to assume on January 1, 2003, all of the operational, dispatch and administrative functions for the power purchase contracts that the California Department of Water Resources (DWR) had entered into. The decision also allocated the DWR contracts to the resource portfolios of these three electric utilities.

D.02-09-053 also directed that the "Servicing Arrangements between DWR and the utilities shall be altered to reflect the new operational arrangements under [the] contract allocation that we adopt today." The decision also directed DWR to "negotiate with SCE and SDG&E appropriate modifications to their respective Servicing Agreements and DWR shall request of us appropriate modifications to the Servicing Order governing PG&E. (D.02-09-053, p. 70.) The proposed modifications were to be submitted by October 1, 2002. Comments on the modifications to the Servicing Agreements of SDG&E and SCE and to PG&E's Servicing Order are due by October 11 and reply comments are due by October 16, 2002.

PG&E, SCE and SDG&E all requested an extension of time for submitting the proposed modifications. The Commission's Executive Director, in a letter dated September 27, 2002, granted a one-week extension, to October 8, 2002, for submission of the modifications to the utilities' respective servicing arrangement documents.

On October 8, 2002, DWR transmitted to the service list a memorandum from Peter Garris of DWR in response to D.02-09-053, along with the proposed modifications to the existing servicing arrangements in Application (A.) 01-06-044, A.01-06-039, and A.00-11-038 et al. The proposed modifications to PG&E's Servicing Order is labeled as "2003 Servicing Order Concerning State of California Department of Water Resources and Pacific Gas and Electric Company."

Due to the one-week extension by the Executive Director, the time for submitting comments on the proposed modifications to PG&E's Servicing Order, and for submitting reply comments, should be extended by one-week as well. Thus, the comments on the proposed modifications to PG&E's Servicing Order shall be due by October 19, 2002, and the reply comments shall be due by October 23, 2002.

IT IS RULED that due to the one-week extension granted in the Executive Director's letter of September 27, 2002, interested parties may submit comments on the proposed modifications to Pacific Gas and Electric Company's Servicing

A.00-11-038 et al. JSW/tcg

Dated October 10, 2002, at San Francisco, California.
